Rochester, N.Y. —

Nazareth College Arts Center has released the details and schedule of performances for its 2013-2014 season which will feature world-class dance, children's theater and international entertainment including work from Rochester Children's Theatre, Rochester City Ballet and Garth Fagan Dance.

"Our 2013-2014 subscription season showcases the power, beauty, and magic of the performing arts," says Susan Chekow Lusignan, director, Nazareth College Arts Center. "We'll present spectacular contemporary dance, including two story ballets, and with aerial artistry; music that celebrates centuries-old Japanese and American and British Pop artists; family entertainment that includes electroluminescent creatures, breathtaking, large-scale puppetry, Scheherazade to Shrek; and special events, such as our long-standing popular political satire on New Year's Eve, and an astonishing performance by country's most sought-after illusionists."

Discounted, subscription series tickets and full-price, single tickets will be available to the public on May 15, 2013 at the box office (389-2170) or online at www.nazarethcollege.edu/artscenter.
